

August 7, 1941.

The Employers' Group of
Boston, Massachusetts,
1180 Raymond Boulevard,
Newark, N. J.

Attention of Mr. Krauss

Dear Sir:

Following up our telephone conversation during which I explained to you about the check that had been mailed to me for salary of Raleigh Mackey, an employee on the Newark Eagles Baseball Club, I am returning said check, as I told you I would. While Mr. Mackey was injured so that he was unable to play ball in the capacity of catcher, he is also the Manager of the Ball Club and was able to dawn his uniform and run the team from the side lines. I do not feel his services to the Ball Club were completely lost and therefore the Club is not entitled this check.

On the other hand, in the case of Leonard Pearson, his services were entirely lost from June 22nd to July 20th. He returned to the line-up July 20th and is trying to play, but even now he does not seem to have completely recovered from the injury. I would appreciate his salary from the time he was out. You have the complete history of this case.

We had another injury this past Sunday, Aug. 3rd at Ruppert Stadium, Leamon Johnson suffered a spike wound. Dr. Willmer has been caring for him. Just how long he will be out of the line up, I cannot say.

Remember to make a notation to contact me during November, I will then be living at #71 Crawford St., City. Thank you for your co-operation.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ